THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the Freedmen's Bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial modes for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into National forces in time of peace; a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7. Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from offices, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, a[illegible] to none but actual occupants at the minimum [illegible]ice as established by the Government. When g[illegible]nts of the public lands may be allowed, neces[illegible]ary for the encouragement of important public [illegible]provements, the proceeds of the sale of such la[illegible]ds and not the lands themselves should be so ap[illegible]lied.

That the President of t[illegible] United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the powers of his high office in resisting the agg[illegible] of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the g[illegible] of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our tha[illegible] for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

NOTICE

IS hereby given, that in pursuance of an order from T. J. Latham, Register in Bankruptcy for the Western District of Tennessee, there will be a second general meeting of the creditors of W. H. Grider, Bankrupt, at said Register's office, No. 450 Main street, at 10 o'clock a.m., on the 4th day of August next.

THE FAR WEST.

The Great Sensation—The Union Pacific Railroad.

BENTON, NORTH PLATTE, July 27, 1868.
Editors Memphis Appeal:

Through you, I desire to give my ideas of this trumpeted wonder of the American people—more particularly as much has been said and acted on by way of immigration, by the Memphis people, during the past spring and summer. And as I desire to confine myself to facts rather than poetry or soothing compliments towards those immediately interested in this road, you will not attribute my statements to bitterness of spirit.

We will start from Omaha, the so-called Magic City of prosperity and promise, located on the west bank of the Missouri river, and smile adieu to the cozily located city of Council Bluffs, which, to seek shelter from the harsh winds and storms that sweeps along the bluffs of Iowa, retreated some four miles from the river bank. Omaha, a primitive city of the West, has now a population of, say eight thousand, looks healthy, if not subdued, as the fire and fever of last spring has died away in its arteries, affording opportunity for thought and reflection, as well as time to balance their accounts. Real estate has depreciated, and as it is the intention to establish the depot of the road on the Iowa side of the river it is generally conceded that the future growth of Omaha will be consequently limited. George Francis Train being part owner of this town, it would form a subject of debate whether his investment in this or holder of "Irish Republican bonds" will be most lucrative.

Many good blocks of business houses, well filled with merchandise, give credit to the enterprise of its merchants, whose faces were bright with hope while their footsteps were directed to the setting sun. The attractive features of Omaha are its beautiful, rolling prairies, hill and valley, clothed with rare verdure, varying with an occasional isolated farm, guiltless of a tree or shrub, and hence looked upon coldly as a farming country.

We jump on the cars and leave this avaricious population, poor hotels and decayed vegetables, and steam along the Union Pacific Railroad, through Nebraska and the valley of the Platte, Dacotah Territory—an even sameness and open plains—onward, still onward, nothing attractive save a horizontal plain below and a clear blue sky above, varied by the pleasant sight of those swift-bounding, graceful antelopes, that furnish much food for mountaineers and ranchmen. At a distance of some ten or twelve miles are small encampments of eight or ten soldiers, a protection to the men who may be making repairs on the road from the raids of the "noble Red Man." These squads of soldiers are reviewed daily from the steps of the cars by an officer from Omaha, who sees that all are present—"present arms, right face, dismiss"—away we go, twenty miles an hour over this wild country, the home proper of the Indian, with its dry alkali surface.

We approach Cheyenne, and as we near that "incorporated city," with its Tennessee Mayor, we behold, apparently near, though some forty miles distant, a belt of the Rocky mountains, its peaks and gorges covered with snow, which it retains through the summer, often snow falling in July and August. A cool, sharp and bracing wind sweeps down from these mountains, on the vast plains beneath, a relief from the burning sun of Omaha, and security from cholera and yellow fever. Cheyenne is 516 miles from Omaha, a town of logs, boards and tents. Its glory is fled; its name almost forgotten. The progress of the road, and locating of new towns by the Railroad Company, induce these "citizens"—I will say "camp followers"—to draw stake and follow up the road, the base of operations. We remain one hour at Cheyenne to "wood and water," and ascertain that sin and bad whisky are prominent features. Thus far no country ever afforded a more level surface for track laying, enabling the contractors to lay four to six miles a day—the North Platte river, a limited stream, presenting the only obstacle to the uniformity of the road. We leave Cheyenne—"nameless here for evermore"—and start for "Laramie," another "new" town of tents and broken lumber, laid out on the "Laramie plains," some seventy-five miles from Cheyenne, and here commences the rougher features of the road. This varies from the Platte valley by the proximity and threatening attitude of the adjacent mountains—a more perceptible show of snow, with lighter and more bracing air and winds. Passing through this distance of seventy-five miles, our nerves for the first time became agitated. A rocky, mountainous country, if not the Indian, seems to question and dispute Northern enterprise; but it is overcome hurriedly—by a "scratch."

The road here is insecure, and would be considered by even an irresponsible insurance company as "extra hazardous," and I am safe in stating, from operatives on the road, that ties and rails have been placed on snow embankments, while at other points the track is laid on slender bases of broken rocks and drift snow. But who cares for life in the face of this marvellous enterprise, when the Government pays $15,000 a mile for building on the plains, and $30,000 a mile when obstacles, like those described, are to be overcome. But the work should be well done? So it should, and no doubt would, did not the Government hold out a very pernicious inducement—one that taxes the honesty and integrity of even more reliable parties than those interested—i. e.—that another company is operating from the Pacific side, with a legion of Chinamen, and the company that first strikes the central point of the road receives the entire control of the road.

We thank a merciful Providence that we arrived safely at Laramie, July 9th, where summer clothing is obsolete—mistaking the season of the year—looking at ourselves with pity and hurling anathemas at the wretches that creep and crawl to the tune of gamblers and thieves, "citizens" of this new, unbroken country. We remained three days in Laramie, awaiting transportation to Benton, the newly laid out town one hundred and ten miles from Laramie, and seven hundred miles from Omaha, and the worst located and least inviting of any thus compassed.

"Cut off from the land that bore us, Betrayed by the land we find."

Here is a balloon town, made in three weeks—one hundred tents, some of circus capacity—mud houses, logs and boards to an equal number. No ice. Snow is brought from the moun[illegible] and sold for five cents per pound. [illegible] is hauled two miles and sold for Water is [illegible] barrel. The Dry Tortugas one dollar p[illegible] presentable features to humanity as this tow[illegible] of Benton. Green river, 180 miles from [illegible] here, will be the next standpoint—thence [illegible] Salt Lake, the supposed focus of our lab[illegible]. The employees of the road number some 10,000. Last winter and spring great inducements were echoed throughout the Northwest and South, hence many left lucrative situations and comfortable homes to realize a fortune on the U. P. R. R. Two of this class arriving at Cheyenne—no employment, no money—went on board a construction car to return to Omaha, where friends would advance them home. It was natural that a railroad being built by the Government would afford this outside accommodation to citizens. Yes, respectable young men, but far removed from a habitation, "on the wild prairies, notwithstanding their earnest appeals, were put off by the conductor, a graduate of a New England prison, and were found next day, pierced with arrows, lacerated and scalped by Indians.

This would be imperfect without stating that this medley of human beings were startled on last Saturday night, the 26th inst., by the arrival of a constellation of military lights, who arrived here on an excursion train. They were Generals Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Harney, Auger, Dodge and Potter. A crowd collected round the Tent Restaurant, where they had supper. Grant, the Moses of the negro, was loudly called for. The distinguished—some said extinguished—General failed to make a speech or "present an appearance"—retreated under the light of an ominous moon—not the sun of Austerlitz—to the cars and returned the same night.

My next will convey an idea of the character, habits and customs of the followers of this road. T. W. R.

The attention of tax payers is directed to the following provisions of "An act to amend the Revenue Laws of this State, passed March 13, 1868."

SEC. 17. Be it further enacted, That in order to secure the prompt collection of the revenue derived from taxes on real estate and personalties, that all such taxes shall be, and they are hereby declared due and payable on the 1st day of July of each and every year for which said taxes were assessed; and provided, the payment of said taxes is deferred and not made before the following first day of November of each and every year, a penalty of two per cent. in amount of taxes to each person for such non-payment shall be, and the same is hereby imposed, which shall be collected by the Tax Collector in addition to the regularly assessed taxes; if not paid before the first day of the following month of December, a penalty of five per cent. shall be, and the same is hereby imposed and shall be collected as aforesaid; if not paid before the first day of the following month of January, a penalty of ten per cent. shall be collected as aforesaid; if not paid before the property is advertised for sale, a penalty of twenty-five per cent. shall be, and the same hereby imposed, which penalty shall attach and be collected whenever the taxes to which said penalty shall be paid.

SEC. 18. Be it further enacted, That it shall, in no case, be lawful for Tax Collectors to give a receipt for taxes to any individual who shall have incurred either of the penalties embraced in section 17, unless said penalty is paid with the taxes, together with such costs and fees as may have legitimately accrued on same; and sworn statements, showing the exact condition of the tax books in every county, shall be made by the Tax Collectors of said county on the first days of November, December and January of every year, and the same shall be filed with the County Court Clerk, and a copy of the same shall be forwarded to the Comptroller of the State.

SEC. 19. Be it further enacted, That in case any property is sold by the Tax Collector for the non-payment of taxes, costs, fees and penalty, shall, in the aggregate, be subjected to an additional penalty of fifty per cent., and whether such property is purchased by individuals, by the city, or by the State for the benefit of public instruction, it shall, at no time, be redeemed by the owner thereof, except upon the payment of the fifty per cent. penalty, together with the taxes, costs, fees and previous penalty attaching at the time of the advertisement of said property, and also the interests on the aggregate amount, for the time elapsing after sale.

SEC. 20. Be it further enacted, That in case property sold for taxes is not redeemed within one year from the time of sale, a further penalty of fifty per cent. shall be and the same hereby is imposed; which penalty shall attach to all previous penalties, taxes, costs, fees and interest that shall have accrued at the end of the year on the property sold; and it shall at no time thereafter be redeemed, whether sold to individuals, city or State, for the benefit of public instruction, except on full payment of all the penalties imposed, together with taxes, fees and costs, and the interest on the aggregate amount of taxes, fees, costs and penalties for such time as shall have elapsed from the date the last penalty was imposed.

SEC. 21. Be it further enacted, That the title to all the property disposed of at public sale for the non-payment of taxes, shall, if not redeemed before the expiration of two years from the date of sale, rest absolutely in the party or parties that purchased said property at public sale, or in their heirs or assigns; Provided, That said parties shall have paid promptly all taxes on the same.

SEC. 22. Be it further enacted, That real estate sold for taxes shall be redeemable at the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, to receive from the owner of such real estate, or his agent, the taxes, costs, charges and penalties imposed by this act, at any time after such sale has been made, within two years from the date of said sale, after the expiration of which time the Tax Collector, or his successor, shall execute deeds to all such real estate as has not been redeemed as aforesaid, to the purchaser, upon his application, as now provided by law.

SEC. 23. Be it further enacted, That it shall not be necessary, in order to carry a good and valid title to real estate sold for public taxes, that the Tax Collector should give the date and number of entry, or either, or date or number of grant, or either; or name of grantee, or number of range or section, or the name of the true owner of such real estate; but it shall only be necessary to give such description of real estate reported for non payment of public taxes as shall be necessary in order to identify the same with reasonable certainty.

* * * * * * *

SEC. 27. Be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws coming in conflict with this act, and the same are hereby repealed; and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

THE very important and extensive improvements which have recently been made in this popular Hotel, the largest in New England, enable the proprietors to offer to Tourists, Families and the Traveling Public, accommodations and conveniences superior to any other Hotel in the city. SET THE LAW AT DEFIANCE.

The Stamp-act was a law, enacted by an omnipotent Parliament, for the government of its colonies not represented in that Parliament. The Sons of Liberty at Boston defied and disobeyed it, as an act of tyranny, and claimed that all laws taxing them against their consent were void. When a tax was by the same authority imposed on tea, they emptied a whole cargo into the waters of Massachusetts Bay.

The laws of the English Parliament against Irish Catholics were enacted by the competent authority, and part of the statute law of England. What Irish Catholic ever felt bound to obey that one which forbade him to educate his own children?

There is no obligation resting on the citizen to obey every law that the Legislature of a Republic or free State may pass, any more than every enactment of a parliament or Emperor. Even under that pedantic, vain and cowardly despot, James the First, Lord Coke could declare that an act of Parliament contrary to natural equity, was void.

Laws may remain on the statute book, and still have been abrogated long ago. The circumstances of the times may repeal a law, as effectually as a legislative act declaring such repeal.

The law of this State against carrying concealed weapons, was enacted in a time of peace, and though proceeding on the erroneous idea of forbidding what is lawful and a right, because the thing forbidden to be kept or carried may be used for an unlawful purpose, there was some excuse for its enactment, since the practice so prohibited undoubtedly increases the number of homicides. The Supreme Court of the State decided the law constitutional. So the twelve judges of England decided that James the Second had the dispensing power, and Chief Justice Chase and Underwood will decide that Jefferson Davis was guilty of treason against the United States.

But a man has just as much right to carry a pistol, as he has to carry a pocket knife or a pipe. He harms nobody by doing so. If he uses the weapon unlawfully, you may punish him for the unlawful act; but you have no more right to forbid his having and carrying the weapon, openly or concealed, than you have to forbid his carrying a vial of strychnine in his pocket, because he might, if he chose, poison somebody with it. If you can forbid his carrying a weapon, you may forbid his having it in his house: and you can no more do it rightfully, than you can forbid his keeping a pack of cards, because he may game with them, or having a pen because he may forge a draft with it.

A law may be obligatory, and it may be really a crime to disobey and defy it; or it may have no real obligatory force, and to defy it may be the highest of duties. To be obligatory, a law, in this country, must be:

First:—In accordance with the Constitutions of the Union and the State, and must not infringe upon or diminish, or prevent the free exercise and enjoyment of any right guaranteed by either.

Second:—It must not violate any natural right of the citizen, or be contrary to natural justice and equity.

Third:—It must bear equally and uniformly on all, and be capable of being enforced against those who disobey it.

Fourth:—It must be both reasonable and necessary.

The Constitutions of the United States and Tennessee declare that the free men of the country have the right to keep and bear arms for their common defence. The language is too broad and plain to give any room for construction to step in to pervert the sense. The right is perfect and absolute. Neither as to the kind of arms nor as to the time and manner of bearing them, can it be limited by legislation. All the artificial reasoning of all the Courts in Christendom could avail nothing and prove nothing, against this simple proposition. The law against carrying concealed weapons is void, as contrary to both Constitutions.

On all the other grounds, also, it is void. There is one right of the citizen that is paramount—the right of self-defence. The law in question cannot be enforced against those who disobey it, except in rare and isolated cases. No officer has the right to go up to a quiet citizen in the street and search him to see whether he bears a weapon on his person. Consequently nine hundred and ninety-nine men of a thousand may carry weapons for months with perfect impunity: and the law does not operate equally and uniformly on all, because if one of that number of men is compelled in self-defence to draw and use his weapon, that act is justifiable and even laudable; and yet he will be punished for the innocent act of having on his person the means of self-defence, and because an outrage committed on him or danger that menaced him compelled him to make known what all the rest were enabled to conceal. Surely, by the way, it is a singular anomaly to punish a man for having with him the means of resisting an unlawful assault upon his person, in other words, of doing a laudable act. What is the difference between punishing him for that and punishing him for the act of self-defence itself?

When, in times of excitement and agitation, one part of the community is armed, and it is impossible to disarm it or for the officers of the law to know the fact, except in here and there a case, the rest have a right to arm. A law not enforced is obsolete, and deemed to be virtually repealed. The legislature cannot lawfully disarm one portion of the people and put them at the mercy of armed enemies, who defy the law, and whom it can neither disarm nor punish. Every negro in Memphis is armed and bears arms. The law is too feeble to prevent this. It cannot protect those who wish to obey it, and who would be glad not to have to arm themselves. Therefore the obligation upon these to obey the law exists no longer. They have the inalienable right to self-defence, and must arm to be able to exercise it.

The truth is, that there is no effort to disarm the negroes. The officers of the law encourage them to carry weapons, and assure them impunity. If they could execute the law by disarming Conservatives, it would be equivalent to tying our hands behind us, and holding us fast until the knife could be put to our throats.

Mr. Barbour Lewis said to the negroes of this city, on Monday night:

The Avalanche and APPEAL say you are armed and drilled. I say they are mistaken. The charge is an unpardonable slander. Have any of you known or heard of any colored men or other Republicans armed or drilled? [Cries of "no," "no," "never."] It is all a lie. We are men of peace. Four thousand of you, all of you, every man of you, pronounce the charge false, false.

Mr. Barbour Lewis is very ready to tell people they lie. We want this question of veracity settled. We do not know, but we believe that he uttered a willful and deliberate falsehood; because we have, again and again, been assured, by persons of the highest character, and even by ladies, that, in more than one place on the outer edge of the city, the negroes were drilling, to the music of the drum and fife, almost nightly. We shall be glad to know that such is not the case; but in the meantime, as we do believe our informants, and do not believe the denial, we repeat, again and again, our advice to every Conservative to arm, that he may be able to defend himself. We repeat, that the law against carrying concealed weapons is null and void; that it is not enforced to the disarming of any negro; that it is unjust and unequal in its operation; that we are under no obligations to obey it, and should be the stupidest fools to do so.

Let us know, now, whether the negroes are drilling or not. We want proof. We publish nothing as a fact that we have not good reasons to believe so. We believe that it is true. We have ourself heard the drum and fife, out beyond the Memphis and Charleston Railroad Depot, until nearly one in the morning, and seen negroes coming up Adams street afterwards. Mr. Lewis' denial does not change our belief. In the meantime, arm! and organize! if you would not be massacred like helpless children. If we would have peace, it must be known that we are prepared to defend ourselves.

SOUND ADVICE—ACT ON IT!

Gen. Wade Hampton, in a speech lately made by him at Charleston, said:

Try to convince the negro that we are his real friends, but if he will not be convinced, and is still joined to his idols, convince him, at least, that he must look to those idols whom he serves as his gods to feed and clothe him. [Immense cheering.]

Agree among yourselves, and act firmly on this agreement, that you will not employ any one who votes the Radical ticket. Use all the means that are placed in your hands to control this element by which the Radical party seeks to degrade us while they secure success; and we can turn their batteries against themselves.

Radicalism has done a great many very impudent things; but perhaps the most impudent of all have been its denunciations of those disfranchised Southern men who have given and acted on the same counsel as that of Gen. Hampton.

The Central Democratic Club of Shelby county has declared by formal vote that its members will, as far as possible, employ those negroes only who act with the Democratic party. We have an office in the same building with eight or more other lawyers; and the only person in the building who can vote is the old negro man who attends to the rooms. If he were to vote to continue our disfranchisement, he would very well know that he ought to be discharged, as he would be, and that we should be fools and asses, if we did not commend him for employment to his Radical friends.

We owe it to those negroes who have courage and good feeling enough to prefer the men among whom they have been reared, to those who were only a little while ago strangers to them, and are now friends only through self-interest, that we should give them employment and enable them to make honest livings. We owe it to our party and the country, that we should refuse to employ those who are practically our worst personal enemies, so that they may be induced by their own self-interest, to vote with us.

Those who are of the Democratic party, among the colored men, should have something by which Conservative white men may recognize them, and make no mistake. If they adopted a badge, others not our friends might obtain and wear the same. Why should not each have a card, with a certificate upon it, signed by some one well known, that could not be counterfeited, and would be sure evidence of his political character. If it is desired, the President of the Central Club will deliver such certificates, not only signed, but stamped with a seal that cannot be counterfeited.

If, then, those who have to employ draymen and hackmen, porters and domestics, do not give the preference to those holding such certificates, they may be very good Democrats at heart, but they will be very poor ones in practice.

Night Dispatches.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, August 5.—The Republican, a Radical paper published by John Reehm and W. J. Bailey, now appears as a daily.

The House to-day adopted a resolution declaring that this is not the time to consider the franchise question, by a vote of 54 to 14, after a long debate.

Bills to suppress masked secret organizations, and to empower the Governor to employ the militia to enforce the laws, will probably pass.

Reports of outrages upon negroes by disguised mobs continue to reach this city, and these have the effect of determining the members to pass laws to prevent their repetition.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 5.—Gov. Seymour's letter of acceptance was published to-day. After referring appropriately to the manner in which he was nominated he says, in speaking of Congress:

"Its acts since the adjournment of the Convention show an alarm lest a change of political power will give to the people what they ought to have—a clear statement of what has been done with the money drawn from them during the past eight years. Thoughtful men feel that there have been wrongs in the financial management which have been kept from the public knowledge. The Congressional party has not only allied itself with that military power which is to be brought to bear directly upon the election in many of the States, but holds itself in perpetual session, with the avowed purpose of making such laws as it should see fit, in view of the elections which will take place within a few weeks. It did not, therefore, adjourn, but took a recess to meet again, if its partisan interests shall demand its re-assemblage. Never before in the history of our country has Congress thus taken such a menacing attitude towards its electors; and under its influence some of the States organized by its agents are preparing to deprive the people of the right to vote for Presidential electors, and the first bold steps are taken to destroy the right of suffrage. It is not strange, therefore, that thoughtful men see in such action of the proof that there is with those who shape the policy of the Republican party motives stronger and deeper than the mere wish to have political power; there is a dread of some exposure which drives them on to acts so desperate and so impolitic. Many of the ablest leaders and journals of the Republican party have openly opposed the violence of Congressional action and its tendency to keep up discord. In our country the great interests of our Union demand peace, order, and a return to industrial pursuits, without which we cannot maintain the faith or honor of our Government. The minds of the business men are perplexed by uncertainty; the hours of toil of our laborers are lengthened by the cost of living, made by the direct and indirect exactions of the Government; our people are harrassed by the frequent demands of the tax gatherers, and without distinction of party, there is a strong feeling in favor of that line of action, which shall restore order and confidence, and shall heave off the burdens which now hinder and tax the industry of the country. Yet, at this moment, those in power have thrown into the Senate chambers and Congressional halls a new element of discord and violence. Men have been admitted as Representatives of some of the Southern States, with the declaration upon their lips, that they cannot live in the States they claim to represent, without military protection. These men are to make laws for the North as well as the South. These men, who, a few days since, were seeking, as suppliants, that Congress would give them power within their respective States, are to-day the controllers of the action of these bodies. Entering there with minds filled with questions and demands that Congress shall look upon the States from which they came, as in conditions of civil war; that the majority of their population, embracing the most intelligent, had to be treated as public enemies, with an army to be kept up at the cost of the people of the North, and that there shall be no peace and order at the South save that which is made by arbitrary power; every intelligent man knows that they not only owe their present position to disorder, but that every motion springs from the love of power, of gain, of a desire for vengeance which prompts them to keep the South in anarchy, for while that exists they are independent of the will or wishes of their fellow-citizens, for while confusion reigns they are dispensers of the profits and the favors which grow out of a government of mere force. These men are now placed in positions where they cannot only urge their views of politics but where they can enforce them. When they shall be admitted in this manner, from the remaining Southern States, although they will have, in truth, no constituents, they will have more power in the Senate than a majority of the people of this Union living within the lines of the great States. In vain members of the Republican party protested against the policy that led to this result, while the chiefs of the late rebellion have submitted to the results of the war, and are now quietly engaged in useful pursuits for the support of themselves and their families, and are trying, by the force of their example, to lead back the people of the South to the order and industry not only essential to their well-being, but to the greatness and prosperity of our community. Those without ability or influence have been thrown by the agitations of civil convulsions into positions of honor and of profit, are striving to keep alive the passions to which they owe their elevation, and they clamorously insist that they are the only friends of our Union. The proof of that can only have sure foundation in the regard and a common desire to promote the peace, the order and the happiness of all portions of our land. The events in Congress since the adjournment of the Convention have vastly increased the importance of a political victory by those who are seeking to bring back economy, simplicity and justice in the administration of our national affairs. Many Republicans who have heretofore clung to their party, who have regretted the extremes of violence to which it has run, who have cherished a faith that while the action of their friends has been a mistake and their motives good, they must now see that the Republican party is in that condition that it cannot carry out a peaceful policy. Whatever its motives may be, it is a misfortune not only to a country but to a Government, and a party itself, when its action is unchecked by any form of opposition. It has been the misfortune of the Republican party that the events of the past few years have given it so much power that it has been able to shackle the Executive, to trammel the Judiciary and carry out the views of the most unwise and violent of its members. When this state of things exists in any party, it has ever been found that the judgment of its ablest leaders do not control them. There is hardly an able man who has helped to build up the Republican organization, who has not, within the past three years, warned it against its excesses, and who has not been borne down and forced to give up his conviction of what the interests of the country call for, or if too patriotic to do this, who has not been driven from its ranks. If this has been the case heretofore, what will be its action with this new infusion, who, without a decent respect for the views of those who had first given them their positions? Beginning their legislative career with calls for arms, and demands that their States shall be regarded as in a condition of civil war, and a declaration that they are ready and anxious to degrade the President of the United States whenever they can persuade or force Congress to bring forward new articles of impeachment. The Republican party, as well as we, are interested in putting some check upon this violence. It must be clear to every thinking man that a dispossession of political power tends to check the violence of party action, and assure the peace and good order of the country. The election of a Democratic Executive and a majority of Democratic members to the House of Representatives, would not give to that any organization of power to make sudden or violent changes, but would serve to check those extreme measures which have been deplored by the best men of both parties."

Speaking of the Presidency he says: "No man can rightfully enter upon the duties of the Presidential office unless he is not only willing to carry out the wishes of the people, expressed in a constitutional way, but is also prepared to stand up for the rights of minorities. He must be ready to uphold the exercise of religion. He must denounce measures which would wrong any person or harm the right or the religious conscience of the humblest citizen of the land. He must maintain without distinction of creed or nationality, all the privileges of American citizenship." Referring to the political changes, he says: "A great change is going on in the public mind. The mass of the Republican party are more thoughtfully tempered and just than they were during the excitement which attended the progress and close of the civil war. As the energy of the Democratic party springs from their devotion to their cause and to their candidates, I may with propriety speak of the facts that never, in the political history of our country, has the action of any like body been hailed with such universal and real enthusiasm as that which has been shown in relation to the position of the National Democratic Convention." He concludes: "I cannot doubt but that we shall gain a political triumph which will restore our Union, bring back peace to our land, and give us once more the blessings of a wise, economical and honest Government."

CITY MATTERS.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The meeting of delegates to select a Congressman and Electors for the Eighth District of Tennessee, will be held at Brownsville on the 10th of August.

TO THE OFFICERS OF DEMOCRATIC CLUBS.

The Recording Secretaries of the several Ward and District Clubs of the city and county are specially requested to furnish the Recording Secretary of the Democratic Club of Shelby county, at the APPEAL office, with a complete roll of all their members in two separate lists, showing the voters and non-voters, also a complete list of their officers, with their postoffice addresses. A compliance with this request before Thursday next will oblige J. M. KEATING,
Rec. Sec. Democratic Club Shelby County.

CONVENTION OF RAILROAD MEN.

The following well-known railroad men were in Convention at the Charleston Depot all day yesterday, discussing matters of great importance to the traveling public: Col. Sam Tate, President Mississippi Central railroad; E. D. Frost, Superintendent Mississippi Central railroad; L. J. Fleming, Superintendent Mobile and Ohio railroad; Henry Fink, Superintendent Memphis and Louisville railroad; T. S. Williams, Superintendent New Orleans and Jackson railroad; W. Hughett, Superintendent Illinois Central railroad; W. P. Johnson, General Agent Illinois Central railroad; Maj. E. B Longley, Southern Passenger Agent Illinois Central railroad; W. F. Harris, Superintendent Transfer Company; E. B. Paine, Superintendent Sleeping Car Company. Among other things discussed were time tables, and freight and passenger tariffs. No conclusions that we can make public were arrived at yesterday afternoon.

THE WEATHER was clear and beautiful yesterday.

FINE MUSIC.—That discoursed by Wardlow's colored Conservative brass band at the Convention yesterday, and at the club meetings last night.

CAPTURED.—Policeman Brandy, of the Second district, at the head of a squad, captured, on Tuesday, a large lot of stolen property in Fort Pickering. They heard of more plunder down at President's Island, and "went for it" yesterday.

SALOON-KEEPERS' MEETING.—The saloon-keepers are requested to attend a call meeting this (Thursday) evening at the Exchange Building to hear the report of the Committee. By order of the President.

DR. NORRIS, the Oculist, showed us yesterday the lense and the hydatoid, or aqueous humor of the eye, taken from the diseased eye of a man in the Navy Yard. This is, we are informed, a rare and difficult operation, but it was most skillfully performed, and the patient is doing well.

FINE FISH.—Messrs. Hoffman, H. P. Johnson, and Capt. A. Wallace went over to Blackfish Lake on a fishing excursion, a few days ago, and returned yesterday. They had with them two champagne baskets full of beautiful fish, a portion of which found their way to the table of our editor-in-chief, and for which we return many thanks.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS EIGHTH WARD CLUB.—To-night is our regular weekly meeting for business, and it is particularly desired by the members that all who have not handed in their names will be present and do so. Our club is becoming enlarged by numerous additions daily. All are requested to attend. By order of the President.
J. W. SMITHER, Secretary.

HUPPERTOWN DEMOCRATIC RALLY! The regular meeting of the Huppertown Club will be held this, Thursday, 6th inst., at 8 p.m. sharp, at D. Correll's hall, on Poplar street. Business of importance will be transacted, and good speakers will be in attendance. Every member of the Club, also every white and black citizen of the Ninth ward and Fifth civil district are earnestly solicited to attend. By order of the President.
C. C. HEIN, Secretary.

DEATH OF KINNA.—Tom Kinna, the fireman who was shot by Jim Fitzgerald on Tuesday morning, died yesterday morning at 11½ o'clock. Coroner Samuelson was notified immediately, and an inquest was held on the body. The following verdict was returned: "Died from a pistol shot, in the hands of James Fitzgerald." The parties who were arrested at the time of the occurrence, and were subsequently discharged, were rearrested immediately. Huss, or Hooth, was taken before 'Squire Kiernan, and his bonds returned, and he was sent to jail to await an examination to-day. Fitzgerald was committed to jail without bail.

POLICE ITEMS.

—Yesterday was quite a busy day in police circles judging from the number of arrests made—though most of them were for trifling offenses.

—Fifteen arrests were made in the First District up to midnight, and eight in the Second up to eight o'clock p.m.

—Nich Hooth was carried before 'Squire Kiernan yesterday, his bond delivered, and he was remanded to jail to await an examination to-day.

—Tom Smith, a negro boy, snatched a till in the store of Frank Rily, in Chelsea, on Tuesday. 'Squire Kiernan committed him in default of bail to await action of the grand jury of Municipal Court.

AT BARGAINS.—Large stock of Boots and Shoes must be sold out. Ladies' Slippers, 75 cents. J. H. Loewenstine & Bros., No. 231 Main street. jy30 2t

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Delegates to the Brownsville Convention Appointed.

The Democracy of Shelby county met in convention yesterday at noon, in the New Memphis Theater, to select delegates to the nominating Convention, which meets at Brownsville on the tenth instant. About eight hundred persons were present, and the assembly comprised some of the very first men of our city and county.

At quarter past twelve o'clock, M. D. L. Stewart, Esq., called the house to order, and proposed Judge P. T. Scruggs as chairman. The nomination was seconded, but before a vote could be taken, G. H. Monsarrat, Esq., proposed the name of the Hon. W. H. Stephens.

Considerable discussion ensued, until finally Mr. Stephens stated that he could not be induced to oppose his friend, Judge Scruggs, and begged his friends to withdraw his name. This was done and Judge Scruggs called to the chair by acclamation.

In a few words he set forth the object of the Convention, which was to add to the number of the appointments already made to the Brownsville Convention, holding those appointments as right and proper.

On motion, Gen. J. D. Ruffin, H. M. Loewenstine, Esq., and W. H. Stephens were appointed Vice-Presidents.

On motion of A. E. Frankland, Esq., the representatives of the press present (Capt. Harvey Mathes, of the Avalanche, J. T. Pratt, Esq., of the Ledger, and F. L. James, of the APPEAL,) were requested to act as secretaries.

Maj. Minor Merriwether then offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention will appoint thirty delegates in addition to those already appointed to represent Shelby county in the Nominating Convention to be held at Brownsville on the 10th inst, to be appointed as follows, to-wit: Nine (9) delegates from the country districts; from the 5th and 14th civil districts, nine (9) each, and three (3) from the 15th civil district, including Chelsea.

The following was offered by Gen. E. W. Rucker:

Resolved, That the chair appoint a committee of thirteen who shall report to this Convention for their action, the list of additional delegates to the Brownsville Nominating Convention.

Col. Mat. Gallaway offered as an amendment to the above that the committee should consist of one member from each civil district, and one from each ward in the city, making twenty-seven instead of thirteen.

A very warm and excited debate followed, which resulted in Maj. Merriwether's accepting the amendment.

The motion as amended was then put to vote and carried nem. con.

The Chair stated that he was at a loss how to proceed with the appointment, and requested gentlemen who were well acquainted to send up the names of some one from each ward and civil district.

It was suggested in lieu thereof that the chair retire with gentlemen from the various wards and districts, and perfect the committee.

The Chair—"But I do not know where to retire to, or whom to retire with."

Alderman Passmore suggested the "green room," and accordingly the chair and a number of gentlemen retired thither.

It was suggested while they were absent that Judge Stephens be requested to address the assemblage. The Judge complied with the numerous calls, and made a most impassioned and patriotic speech. He was followed by Col. Landon C. Haynes in his usual happy and eloquent vein.

The Chairman then came forward and said he had completed the list of the Appointing Committee. He had found several districts not represented and had been compelled to do the best he could in substituting names. The committee was then requested to retire and proceed to the selection of the additional delegates.

While the committee were out Colonel Hallum attempted to read a resolution indorsing the action of the Convention of Soldiers at Nashville in regard to the enfranchisement of the people of this State, but, at the request of the Chair, he postponed the reading.

Gen. Chalmers was then called for and came forward and made a brilliant speech of nearly an hour's duration, urging the Convention to send representatives to the Brownsville Convention; no matter whether they were from the old Democratic or old Whig party—send gentlemen.

At the close of his address, Col. Hallem got a chance to read his resolution, which was as follows:

Resolved by the Democracy of Shelby County in Convention Assembled. That the action of Gens. Forrest, Pillow, Brown, Maney, Quarles, Johnson, Gordon, Dibrell, Smith and Anderson, in their recent conference with the committee appointed by the Legislature of Tennessee, to devise ways and means by which the peace and security of the people of Tennessee might be secured and preserved, meets with the unqualified approval and indorsement of the Democracy of Shelby county.

G. P. Foute, Esq., desired to read a resolution which he had prepared, tending to the same end. It was read, but being vague and indefinite, was, at the request of several prominent gentlemen, withdrawn.

Col. Hallum's motion was put and carried.

Newt. Hart, Esq., then offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Shelby county in Convention assembled at this time for the oppressed people of this District, return our thanks to those members of the Radical party in the Senate and House of Representatives who are in favor of the enfranchising of the white people of this State, and who are assisting in said cause.

Mr. Foute was ready with an amendment, which was, with the original motion, most vigorously discussed and combatted.

Mr. Hart was warmly urged to withdraw his motion, but refused to do so.

Col. Heiskell arose and said that he was not in favor of thanking men for doing what was simply their duty, nor thanking men for undoing a wrong and an infamy that they had committed. He spoke but few words, but those were words of fire, and went straight to the hearts of almost every man present. It "knocked the wind" completely out of the resolutions and they were withdrawn.

The chairman of the committee announced to the chair that they were ready to report the names of the additional delegates that they had chosen. The following report was then made:

Country—John E Dickinson, Charles Jones, jr., T. B. Norment, A. J. Hayes, W. M. Perkins, S. H. Jones, J. McBrooks, K. J. B. L. Wynn and Geo. C. Holmes.

City—Fifth District—A. E. Frankland, D. C. Loewenstine, Irving Halsey, J. J. DuBose, R. A. Thompson, John W. Dawson, Wm. Miller, P. T. Scruggs and Thos. O. Smith.

City—Fourteenth District—G. T. Hubbard, John Donovan, W. H. Passmore, J. R. Chalmers, Robert Good, M. B. Trezevant, Martin Kelly, W. L. Stewart, F. M. Mahan.

Fifteenth District—George W. Cheek, Dr. R. P. Bateman, J. D. Danbury.

The following are the original delegates:

Original Delegates.—M. D. L. Stewart, F. A. yTler, Minor Merriwether, John Ainslie, R. D. Baugh, P. M. Winters, A. Pike, Van A. W. Anderson, G. P. Foute, John P. Tobin.

It was moved that the report be received and adopted, which was carried.

It was moved that Gen. Rucker and Col. Landon C. Haynes be added to the committee.

Col. Haynes declined the honor, but Gen. Rucker's name was accordingly added to the list.

Gen. Rucker offered a resolution, to which Capt. Harvey Mathes offered a substitute, but at the request of Col. Haynes, and on the ground that the delegates should go to the Convention untrammeled, both resolutions were withdrawn.

There being no further business before the meeting, it adjourned.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The Meeting at the Theater.

Grand Rally—The Ladies Out in Force.

Rarely, since the New Memphis was built, have its walls contained a larger or more brilliant throng of "fair women and brave men" than filled its seats and aisles last night, on the occasion of the reunion of the Young Men's Independent Democratic Club No. 1, and its reception of its brother laborers in the great work of redemption and disenthralment of our beloved land, the Central Club of Shelby county, Young Men's Independent Seymour Club and several ward clubs. The ladies were out in full force, and seemed to enjoy and take great interest in the proceedings.

Maj. Irving Halsey, First Vice-President, was in the chair, and received the deputations, who were introduced by R. A. Thompson, Esq., President of that noble band of young men—the Young Men's Independent Seymour Club.

Speeches were made by H. Townsend, Esq., Judge T. W. Brown, Ed. M. Yerger, Esq., Gen. Albert Pike, and Newt. Hart—the whole interspersed with strains of beautiful music.

After the meeting adjourned, the band visited the offices of the Avalanche and APPEAL, and serenaded them. Calls were made at both offices for speakers; but newspaper men, at that hour of night, after the labors of the day, and with several hours of labor still ahead of them, feel very little like speech-making. Newt. Hart, however, made a talk at the Avalanche building, which pleased the crowd, if one may judge by the cheers with which it was received.

LARGE CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

The citizens at Walker's Station, Fayette county, Tenn., met on the 31st day of July, 1868, for the purpose of forming a Democratic club. On motion, G. W. Morris was called to the chair, and Samuel E. Gaither requested to act as Secretary.

On taking the chair, Mr. Morris explained the object of the meeting. He said he was glad to see so many intelligent and old citizens present, and hoped they would all work for the welfare of the country, as the time was now upon us that required the effort of all good men regardless of former party predilections.

On motion, the following committee, to draft resolutions expressive of the meeting, were appointed, viz: A. M. C. Dobbins, J. J. Deener, J. Burnett, D. S. Baxter, W. H. Morton, J. A. Somers and E. Gaither, Sr.

Whilst the Committee was out, the meeting was addressed by Hon. John L. T. Sneed, of Tennessee, in pointed and eloquent terms. He showed to what extent of ruin the country had been brought by the Radicals, and unless Seymour and Blair could be elected, the country's doom was inevitable. After which, the Committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We, the citizens of the southwest part of Fayette county, without distinction of party, ignoring all past political differences and looking forward to the day when our country shall be relieved from the oppression and misrule of Radical usurpation, do hereby declare our uncompromising hostility to the principles of that party, and that we will use all honorable means to secure its speedy defeat,

Resolved, That we most heartily indorse the patriotic platform adopted by the Democratic Convention assembled in the city of New York on the 4th of July, 1868.

Resolved, That the nomination of Gov. Horatio Seymour and Gen. Frank P. Blair for President and Vice-President meets our earnest approval, and we pledge to them our united support.

Resolved, That in calling ourselves the Democratic party, we mean all the elements united in opposition to Radicalism, (of whatever party heretofore,) and forming the great Conservative party of the country.

Resolved, That we cordially invite the co-operation of the colored population, and that we will impart to them all necessary information upon the political topics of the day.

Resolved, That we, the citizens of District No. 14, form a Democratic Club.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be sent to the Fayette Falcon, Memphis APPEAL, Avalanche and Public Ledger.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Report of Alderman McDavitt.

Election of Alderman.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Board met yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. Present: Hon. John W. Leftwich, Mayor; Chairman Swayne; Aldermen Glancey, Johnson, Joyce, Black, Mageveney, Cartwright, O'Donnell, Cicalla, Ruffin, Renner, Passmore, McDavitt, Ellis, Brown, Holst, Moffet and Lemon.

The Board being called to order, the chairman of the Finance Committee, Alderman McDavitt, presented the following report:

Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

Having been appointed by your honorable body to visit New York and other large cities, with a view to place our financial condition properly before the capitalists of those cities, I have the honor to report that I have performed the duty assigned me to the best of my ability.

On my route to New York I spent several days in Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington and Baltimore. I found our city's credit at a very low ebb in all these places. I think, however, this is owing to the fact that the capitalists generally whom I met have a very imperfect idea of our true condition, resources, etc., and I believe that my trip will eventually result in much good.

Upon my statement of the amount of real estate held by us, and an assessment of over $35,000,000, from which to derive our taxes, I had the gratification to satisfy monied men that our debt of at most $3,000,000 is a small one for such resources, and that our bonds ought to be in the neighborhood of par, and but for the unfortunate break-down in Tennessee bonds, during my stay in New York, I feel sure our bonds would have rapidly advanced; but this break-down had a very depressing effect (as I feared it would) upon all Southern securities.

I had another difficulty to contend with in the sitting of the Democratic Convention, which created such a political commotion in the city that I was not able to do as much as I otherwise could. Besides, I was confined a week to my room by a severe attack of sickness; still, every moment of my time that I was able to use was employed in the interest of the city, even to denying myself the pleasure of attending any meeting of the Convention.

In the city of Baltimore I was able to accomplish more. I found there a citizen holding thirteen of our ten per cent. bonds, and I induced him to surrender them and accept six per cent. bonds in place of them. This exchange has been made and the ten per cent. bonds canceled. I think it best to get up all those ten per cent. bonds, and I have labored to accomplish this ever since I learned that any were in existence. In Philadelphia I found very little sympathy for anything South except the colored population.

In all my interviews with monied men they urged the importance of our providing, by special ordinance, of a stipulated fund yearly, to be set apart as a sinking fund to be invested in our own bonds, and when we come to realize the large amount of our Little Rock Railroad bonds that will mature in 1872, we will see at once that this matter has been already too long postponed.

I cannot close this report without referring in terms of high praise to the valuable aid rendered me at Louisville, Cincinnati and New York by Mr. F. S. Davis, President of the First National Bank, who was with me in all those cities. Most respectfully submitted,
E. McDAVITT.

After the reading and reception of the foregoing the unfinished Hospital business was taken up.

A motion to amend the motion to refer the matter to a special committee, was carried, after a protracted debate, and the original motion, as amended, was adopted.

The portion of the Mayor's message, which recommends the allowing of a first class clerk to the City Comptroller, was then taken up and considered.

Alderman Passmore moved an extra Clerk, at a salary of $125 per month, to fill up the bonds now being issued by the city. He also moved that the Wharfmaster be allowed an assistant.

Both motions were referred to the Finance Committee, with the amendment that the furnishing of the clerks to all city officers be embraced in the reference.

Alderman Pasemore offered the following:

Resolved, etc., That all parties having claims against the city must present them to the Committee on Accounts on the first of every month, or they will be rejected. Adopted.

By the same:

An account in favor of H. Weadly, for $417 30. Allowed.

By Alderman Moffet:

A motion that a requisition for feed for the street teams be allowed. Carried.

ALDERMAN OF THE FIRST WARD.

To fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of J. J. Powers, the following names were placed in nomination: H. C. Goodlett, J. O. Drew, Owen Dwyer, M. Garvin, John Zent.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Goodlett, 9; Garvin, 2; Drew, 1; Dwyer, 2; Zent, 4.

Second Ballot—Goodlett, 9; Garvin, 2; Dwyer, 4; Zent, 3.

Third Ballot—Goodlett, 9; Zent, 3; Dwyer, 4.

Fourth Ballot—Goodlett, 6; Zent, 3; Dwyer, 7; Garvin, 1.

Fifth Ballot—Goodlett 9; Zent, 2; Dwyer, 6.

Thereupon the Board adjourned to four o'clock this evening.

THE COURTS.

CHANCERY COURT—A. Alston, Clerk and Master.—The Clerk and Master will take an account to-day in the case of Meyers vs. Holland et al.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge. All business, for the present, was concluded on yesterday. No more business will be transacted. Court adjourned yesterday over to Friday next, when the minutes will be signed and an adjournment had to court in course the second Monday in October next.

CRIMINAL COURT — Wm. Hunter, Judge.—In the case of the State vs. Henry Wood (negro), indictment for assault and battery with intent to commit murder, tried on yesterday, the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." A nol pros. was entered in the State vs. Eli Guthrie et al, as to Eli Guthrie and James Shafter, on the indictment, charging assault and battery with intent to commit murder. Two other indictments have been found against the same parties for arson and larceny. Court adjourned on yesterday over to Friday next. On that day the Calendar of cases heretofore published will be called for trial. No decision has as yet been announced on the motions for new trials in the cases of the State vs. Sam. Moody, et al., or the State vs. John Cosgrove. It is probable Judge Hunter will make known his ruling on those motions on Friday next.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, August 5, 1868. }

Business yesterday was dull upon the streets and at our banks. Many of the most familiar faces were missing from their accustomed places during the day, being in attendance at the meeting held in the New Memphis to nominate delegates to Brownsville. Our merchants are taking a much more active interest in politics than ever before, as they find after years of misrule and its accompanying burdensome taxation, there is no salvation for our people without a great political change occurs, and further postponement of that change will entail utter ruin.

The money market was very quiet today. The demand for exchange, which was quite active for the first three days in the month, is again falling off and rates are likely to remain as they are for some time yet to come. We could learn of no bills offering, and the nominal buying rate is par to ⅛c premium. Selling on New York at ⅜c premium, and on other points at ¼c premium.

Gold is advancing rapidly without any apparent cause, and the New York bulls are having things all their own way. That market opened to-day at 147⅛c, and closed at 148c. It will probably reach 150c, and then decline as rapidly as it rose. We quote at 145@146c buying in this market. Selling at 147@147½c.

The New York stock exchange quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Coupons of '81, 15⅞; do '62, 14½; do '64, 11; do '65, 12¼; new issue, 8⅛; do '67, 8⅛; 10-40s, 9⅛; 7-30s, both series, none; Government bonds, steady; old Tennessees, 65; new, 64½.

Bonds and stocks are quiet and nominally unchanged. There is an active demand for railroad and city bonds, but holders are waiting to see what the future has in store and are generally looking for an advance.

City scrip is firm. Brokers who are enabled to convert scrip into bonds as per contract with the Mayor, are the strongest buyers. They offer 72@73c for small amounts, but will not sell at less than 80c.

County warrants are sought after by one or two brokers. They take occasional or spasmodic spells, and in a spirit we presume of true faith in the Board of Commissioners, dart out upon the market offering an advance of 2@5c over all competitors, but generally succeed in getting all they want in a short time. Anaconda like, they gorge and retire, and days will elapse before they again become similarly attacked. A few sales were made to-day at figures ranging from 53@56c.

Police scrip is dull. Buying at 70c. Selling at 75c.

The Galveston Dispatch of the 29th ult. says:

The first bale of cotton grown in 1868 was yesterday received at Houston from M. J. Duke, Grimes county. It weighed four hundred and eight pounds, classed good middling, and was sold to T. W. House.

This bale was committed to the care of the Southern Express Company, to be by them forwarded to New York city. This they did under the direction of a "special messenger," and the cotton was yesterday received and receipted for by the New York consignee. Taken altogether—the quick growth and quicker marketing—beats all former precedent. "There's life in the old land yet."

Reports from crops in Southern Georgia show that the rains are injuring the plants, and information from Florida states that the worm is at work on most of the plantations.

The shipments of flour and grain from Toledo, Ohio, since the 1st of January, exceed those for the same time in 1867, 7,451,741 bushels.

A Louisville whisky. The whisky is to be made within the next two years, and the contract is probably the largest ever entered into in the United States.

The wheat crop in Illinois is less than the average, but the corn crop will be unparalleled.

The last mail from China brought advices from Hong Kong to June 1st, at which time the new season opens, and the total export of the last season being complete, can be compared with the export of previous years. It appears that the total export of tea from China and Japan to Great Britain has been 117,323,342 pounds, against 113,452,882 in the previous season, and the export to the United States has been 33,302,647, against 34,334,484 pounds the year before. As to the prospect of the new season, an active demand at enhanced values is expected.

Cotton was declining in Liverpool at the opening to-day, Uplands, 9⅝d; Orleans, 10d, and at the close was easier. Sales, 8000 bales. Uplands, 9⅜@9⅝d; Orleans, 9⅞@10d.

In New York at the opening the market was inactive and prices drooping and entirely nominal; Low Middlings, 28c; Middlings, 30c; Orleans, 30½c; Good Middlings, 33c. At 2 p.m., which was the last report received, prices were lower; Low Middlings, 27½c; Uplands, 29½c. Sales, 500 bales.

MISCELLANEOUS.

There was no boat in port yesterday during the day, and the levee was deserted, even by levee rats.

The towboat Shark passed down yesterday.

The Laura passed up yesterday for St. Louis with a load of lumber from White river.

Capt. John B. Davis is in Cincinnati.

The Natoma leaves to-day at 6 p.m for Napoleon, connecting with the American for Little Rock. Capt. Jim Lee is master, and Fields, Whitehead and Lee are clerks.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, leaves to-day at 5 p.m. for Cairo and St. Louis.

The Frank Pargoud passes up to-morrow morning for St. Louis.

The Legal Tender and Lizzie Gill, both up, were due at dark last night.

The Ruth goes into the trade from this city to New Orleans.

The Jennie Baldwin, a sternwheeler, sunk in the upper Mississippi a few days ago.

The Mollie Able, Capt. Dan Able, or Capt. John Duble, left St. Louis last evening.

The ... to Cairo; cause, sandbars.

The Missouri river boatmen anticipate a larger grain business this year from that stream than ever before.

The Mary Swan, once well known in these waters, has been purchased by parties at Mobile, and having been generally improved, will ply hereafter in that part of the vineyard.

The DeSoto Boat Club held a meeting last night to consult about the uniform to be worn by the Club. This is the oldest boat club in the city, and is composed of members of the old DeSoto Fire Company, (No. 7.) They have been somewhat embarrassed since the company formed, owing to the failure of the Treasurer of the Company, Mr. Martin Kelly, in making good the balance in his hands when the Fire Company disbanded some years ago, but by getting a partial settlement they were enabled to contract with Messrs. Singleton & Hewitt for a rowboat which will take the broom away from any now in these waters. The new boat, which will be forty-six feet long and two feet wide, will be ready to launch in a short time, when we may expect to hear from the boys of No. 7.

Freight is reported plentiful at Cairo.

The America is posted at Louisville for Vicksburg.

Mr. Keister's body has been recovered. He was a merchant of West Virginia, and jumped overboard from the Dexter when she sunk recently in the Ohio.

The British frigate Hussar sunk at Hell Gate, in the East river, on the 25th of November, 1780, is again beginning to attract public attention, owing to a submarine contrivance which is expected, if not to raise the hull itself, at least to recover some of the treasure that is supposed to be in the hold. That treasure is said to have amounted to $900,000 in gold.

The John Kilgour is loading at Louisville for New Orleans.

The little steamer Alpha, which has been plying on the Cumberland, will enter the Louisville and Cairo trade.

A few days ago a raftsman named Gore, was struck by lightning, on the upper Mississippi, during a storm. He said he 'didn't care a d—n for any lightning God ever made.' Immediately the bolt struck him on the head, and he was a dead man.

A canal boat propelled on a new principle, has been placed on the Erie canal, and attracts some attention. The propelling power is a wheel in the center of the boat which is arranged something like the driving wheels of a mowing machine. The wheel rests upon the bottom of the canal, and is fixed upon a frame which allows it to rise and fall according to the depth of the water. The speed is about twice as much as by towing. The boat creates no swell, and from the shore it was impossible to tell where the motive power was applied.

Mr. Eggleston, of Ohio, had a conference with Gen. Humphreys, of the Engineer Bureau, a few days ago, regarding the improvements of the Ohio river, and was informed that an order directing Gen. Weitzel to begin the work at the head of the Louisville canal would go out at once.

DES ARC

JOHN D. ELLIOTT, Master; CAD. J. HANKS and MAT GLASS, Clerks.

THE steamer DES ARC having been put in thorough repair, will enter the MEMPHIS AND WHITE RIVER TRADE permanently on THURSDAY, the 3d day of September, 1868, leaving Memphis every Thursday for all points on White and Little Red rivers, connecting at Devall's Bluff with trains for Little Rock. Leaves Devall's Bluff for Memphis every Monday on arrival of train.

NOTICE.—To the Merchants of Memphis—The steamer DES ARC will resume her trips in the White River Trade on Thursday, the 3d day of September, 1868, and as I am satisfied that it is the wish of both the planter and merchant that the local packets receive and transport merchandise on which there is C. O. D. charges and in view of the fact that the refusal to transport such freight has operated very much against the trade of Memphis, the steamer DES ARC (a home packet, owned and controlled in Memphis) will, on resuming, receive all C. POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY
PUBLISHED BY THE MASONIC PUBLISHING
—AND—
MANUFACTURING COMPANY
432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACcepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov. Grand Commander. 8vo. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

⁂ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating bottom lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Farrington & Howell's, 268 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Steel Comb Gin before the war but now a planter, gives the following certificate:

"MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the hulls, bolls, etc., from the Seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saws and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 268 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Presses and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skillful Ginwright. G. W. TRUHEART,

Our Latest Improved
NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.
GROVESTEEN & CO.,
499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly

And whereas, in order to secure and save harmless the said John Overton, Thomas Bibb, R. C. Brinkley and A. F.
